Sharing equally: discover one half

What does it mean to share something equally?

Take a sheet of paper. Fold it so that both parts match.

Open it. How many equal parts can you see?

Shade one part. You have shaded one half.

Find another way to fold the paper into two equal parts.

Talk with a partner: do both shapes show one half? Why?

Try it: draw two equal parts of a rectangle and shade one.

Original Mwabu demonstration material. CC0 1.0.